Client Testimonials

"A huge thank you to Ellen Crow today. She was so lovely, explained everything in such great detail to us, made us feel at ease as much as possible. Under sad circumstances I know but it was a real pleasure to meet her and hopefully we will see her on the 17th May also. She is incredibly amazing at her role. I could tell she meant business and for the best outcome of the day the minute we met her..."

Cases of Note

R v J (2023)

Instructed to represent J, a vulnerable defendant who was appealing his conviction for being drunk and in charge of a motor vehicle. The appeal was successful, and J's conviction was quashed.

R v F (2023)

Secured a suspended sentence for F who pleaded guilty to multiple counts of possession with intent to supply Class A, despite F's relevant previous convictions and the Judge's initial indication that an immediate custodial sentence was appropriate.

R v B (2023)

Successful defence of a man charged with assaulting his partner. B made admissions to the offence in his police interview. Ellen successfully argued that the police interview should be excluded.

R v D (2023)

Secured a suspended sentence for D who pleaded guilty to driving whilst disqualified during the operational period of suspended sentence order. The original sentence was allowed to continue, and a further suspended sentence order was imposed in relation to the new offence.
