

George Smart

YEAR OF CALL: 2023

Overview

George commenced pupillage in October 2024, under the supervision of Dominic Connolly. He observed and worked on criminal cases involving drugs, sexual offences, violence, and revenue fraud. He is currently under the supervision of Louisa Collins who specialises in extradition, international crime and human rights law. Most recently, George has observed junior members of chambers conducting a full range of hearings in the Magistrates' Court.

Before beginning pupillage, George worked with vulnerable detainees as an Appropriate Adult in various police stations across North London.

George completed the GDL and Bar Course at City University and, in both cases, was awarded a Distinction. Before studying law, George built a successful career in the Digital Advertising industry where he held a number of senior, advisory roles.

George was called to the Bar in July 2023 by Middle Temple.
