

Izzy Fish

YEAR OF CALL: 2025

Overview

Izzy began her pupillage in October 2025 and is currently supervised by David Williams.

Prior to starting pupillage, Izzy was a paralegal at Sonn Macmillan Walker, primarily working in the financial crime and asset forfeiture department. During her time at the firm, she worked on a broad range of cases, including sexual offences, serious violence, large-scale complex frauds, asset freezing and forfeiture orders, and confiscation matters before the Magistrates Court, Crown Court, and Court of Appeal.

During her Bar Course at the University of Law, she undertook an LLM in Pro Bono Practice, specialising in immigration law. Izzy is the Chair of the Events Committee for Women in Criminal Law.
