

Bridget Todd

YEAR OF CALL: 1996

Bridget is an experienced criminal barrister who practises in all areas of serious crime. Her focus is on prosecution work for the Crown Prosecution Service & other prosecution bodies & agencies

Overview

Bridget has a busy prosecution practice and is regularly instructed by the CPS including the RASSO unit. Her practice covers serious and complex cases ranging from conspiracy to murder, armed robbery, drugs, violent offences, fraud, human trafficking to serious sexual offences including rape and historic abuse.

Professional Memberships

Criminal Bar Association.

South East Circuit.

Criminal Prosecutions - Private & Public

Bridget receives instructions in the most serious criminal cases.

Bridget is often instructed in complex historic and current sexual offences. Her preparation of these cases involves a careful review of significant amounts of medical/mental health and social services records. She provides clear and concise advice. She also has experience in dealing with trials involving young and vulnerable witnesses, intermediaries and other professionals.

Bridget is also instructed in serious complex case work and she frequently prosecutes importation offences ranging from drugs, tobacco, firearms to human trafficking.

Cases of Note

R v D [2025] Double attempted murder

Jealous defendant repeatedly stabbed his friend in the abdomen before turning and stabbing her new partner to the face and torso in a frenzied attack which occurred in the town centre. He also caused serious injury to male who attempted to come to their aid. Sentenced to life imprisonment with a minimum term of 13 years

R v I [2025] Sex offences against 2 sisters

Teenage defendant committed multiple rapes and sexual offences against his 2 younger sisters in their own home. Abuse went on over a number of years.

R v A & W [2024] Stabbing-drugs

Defendant convicted after trial of s18, stabbing in a revenge attack on victim. Defendant chased V from an alleyway. V locked himself in a van. Defendant broke into the van and dragged V then stabbed him during a rapid assault involving the co-defendant. V left with multiple stab wounds.

R v R [2024] Incest

Defendant convicted after of multiple counts of incest with his step sister. Large age gap between them and offences occurred in her own home.

R v B [2024] Historic sexual offences

Defendant convicted after trial of historic offences of buggery and indecent assault against a young boy who he befriended through a local community group.

Drugs [2024]

Defendant convicted together with 3 others of conspiracy to supply multiple kilos of Class A drugs using an encrypted phone. Case involved analysis of multiple mobile phone downloads, cells site data and also included legal argument on the use of an encrypted device.

R v H [2023]

Successful prosecution of multiple counts of sexual activity with a child aged 14.

R v T [2022]

Successful prosecuted an 85 year old defendant for historic rape on 3 complainants. Defendant had an intermediary.

R v C [2022]

Defendant [19] convicted of sexual activity with a child. Vulnerable victim. Case involved large amounts of social media and phone material.

R v J [2022]

Successfully prosecuted defendant who had stabbed the victim multiple times in a revenge attack.

R v A [2022]

Defendant charged with child neglect of his 4 children. All 4 children gave evidence, youngest was 6. Convicted on all counts. Intermediary used with 2 of the youngest children.

R v X [2022]

Prosecution of an importation of vast quantities of cocaine through Europe into the UK. Involved calling tachograph expert.

R v M & Others [2021]

Prosecution junior in a 4 handed conspiracy to supply Class A involving encrypted. And complex cell site material

R v M [2021]

Successful prosecution of defendant charged with rape and multiple assaults against his partner. Dealt with complex medical findings, phone material and a traumatised victim.

R v C [2021]

Successful prosecution of C for inciting sexual activity with a girl under the age of 10.

R v I & M [2019]

Successful prosecution of a double rape of a vulnerable woman in her own home. One of the defendants was a stranger the other was known to her.