Criminal Defence

David is an experienced trial advocate acting in the most serious as complex cases both led and alone.

Instructions this year include acting for D1(a child) in multi handed s18 (acquittal), a significant number of county lines drugs allegations (ongoing), a number of encrochat conspiracies and a particularly complex allegation of death by dangerous driving.

He also has experience being led having acted over four months for D1 in a 5 handed allegation of people trafficking and money laundering at Southwark CC.

David has a particular commitment to defending Graffiti writers, particularly those wrongly charged with large scale conspiracies to commit criminal damage. He recently having acted to secure acquittal for a train writer in exchange for individual pleas where damage ascribed to a group was alleged to have initially run to well over £150,000, securing a community order.

In addition he has experience in appellate matters, particularly advice on appeals out of time.

Professional Discipline & Regulatory

David was a consultant to The Football Association's Regulatory Advocates Department in the 2016/17 season conducting over 30 hearings before Regulatory Commissions and Appeal Boards of The FA.

David has significant experience of the application of FA rules and conducted cases encompassing all areas under The FA's jurisdiction including:

the only FA Competition appeal of the 16/17 season,
on-field discipline,
conduct in the Technical Area,
anti-doping regulations,
social drugs use,
social media comments,
financial irregularities in club ownership/affairs,
player contracts,
transfers and safeguarding.

David has experience in a number of areas of regulatory prosecution including food hygiene, environmental regulations, health and safety and asbestos regulations.

David was recently appointed to the General Dental Council's (GDC) list of appointed specialist advocates.

Judicial Review & Public Law

As a result of his experience before the Administrative Court, David is increasingly instructed to advise on public law challenges in and outside of extradition law.

He has frequently provided advice in relation to prison law in the UK.

Criminal Prosecutions - Private & Public

David has experience in a full range of criminal matters and is instructed in serious criminal cases and accepts instructions in Private Prosecution cases.

Immigration

David is also familiar with immigration proceedings, particularly where they are related to extradition and is instructed to provide representation and advice. In his last case proceedings were stayed as an abuse of process following oral submissions.

Inquests & Inquiries

David accepts instructions in relation to Public Inquiries and Inquests.

Cases of Note

Atraskevic v Lithuania [2015] EWHC 131 (Admin)

Junior, led by David Josse QC, represented the Appellant in the first case to give full guidance on the approach to be adopted by the Court when answering the statutory questions posed in the Forum Bar.

Kulibaba v USA [2014] EWHC 176 (Admin)

Acted as junior counsel in this American extradition request relating to multi-million pound allegations of banking fraud. The Divisional Court proceedings centred around the concept of double jeopardy and abuse of process in extradition proceedings and the extent to which conduct as compared to outcomes should inform the basis of a finding of double jeopardy.

Augusciak v Poland (Unreported, heard 29 Jan 2014)

Instructed in this long running case, initially winning on grounds of Article 3 ECHR before the case was overturned at appeal in Poland v Augusciak[2012] EWHC 4043 (Admin). Following the retirement of the deputy senior district judge the case became the first to have been remitted to the magistrate's court but continue before a different judge. The case was never opened within the 21 day time limit. On appeal by the requested person it was successfully argued that the interpretation of section 8 Extradition Act 2003 adopted in Morozovs v Latvia [2013] EWHC 367 (Admin) was incorrect and that the 21 day time limit does apply following adjournments under sections 8A and 8B of the Act.

A and Others v Lithuania [2014] EWHC 437 (Admin)

David was acting for two of 7 extradition Appellants, led by David Josse QC in what will become the leading authority on prison conditions in Lithuania and the use of assurances within the EAW scheme. It is the first time such wide ranging and significant assurances have been used within Europe, and became significantly complicated by breaches of those assurances between first instance and appeal.

J and Others v Lithuania

David was acting for 4 requested persons, led by David Josse QC in the second conjoined case on prison conditions in Lithuania and the use of assurances within the EAW scheme before the senior district judge.

R v J - Hove Crown Court, June 2015

Client accused of money laundering related to the unlawful sale of prescription drugs acquitted following submissions at the close of the prosecution case.

R v Shaun Gould (Court of Appeal Criminal Division) [2011] EWCA Crim 2348

Successful appeal against deterrent sentence imposed for burglary.
